PRESS RELEASE

Sindh Public Service Commission (SPSC) Issues Public Warning Regarding Unauthorized Activities of Suspended Officer Mr. Imtiaz Ahmed Jagirani

HYDERABAD: The Sindh Public Service Commission (SPSC) has issued an official public warning and notice regarding the illegal and unauthorized movement of Mr. Imtiaz Ahmed Jagirani, Additional Controller of Examinations (currently under suspension).

Despite being formally suspended from his official duties and position, Mr. Jagirani has been continuously violating administrative orders by illegally attending his office and unlawfully possessing and utilizing government assets.

Key Details of the Violation:

- Unauthorized Access: Despite receiving multiple clear warnings from the administration, Mr. Jagirani has unlawfully retained possession of the keys to his designated office as well as the keys of a sensitive branch in the office which was operating under him.
- Misuse of Government Assets: The suspended officer has continued to retain and use official government assets without legal authority or authorization.
- Disregard for Authority: His actions demonstrate a blatant disregard for official suspension orders and administrative protocol.

Action Taken and Public Advisory

The Competent Authority i.e. Chairperson, SPSC has taken serious and strict notice of these illegal actions. Appropriate disciplinary and legal courses of action are already underway to address this breach of conduct.

In the interim, the general public and government departments are strongly advised to remain aware of this situation and to refrain from dealing with Mr. Imtiaz Ahmed Jagirani in any official capacity regarding SPSC matters. The Commission shall not accept, recognize, or take responsibility for any documents, directives, or communications issued or handled by him during his suspension period.

SPSC remains committed to maintaining transparency, integrity, and strict adherence to the rule of law across all its administrative functions.
